

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, The Vermillion Tanager wrestling team entered the 1982-83 season as the defending Class A runner-up; and,

WHEREAS, Vermillion crowned six individual titlists to power the Tanagers over Brandon Valley in the Section 3 Championship; and,

WHEREAS, Vermillion controlled the preliminary rounds of the South Dakota Class A Wrestling Tournament by advancing six wrestlers to the semifinals, and the combined efforts of the Tanagers garnered them the State Class A wrestling title with 140 points; and,

WHEREAS, Ryan Menard gave Vermillion its first state championship victory by defeating his Sturgis opponent 26-8 at 105 pounds; Tim Manning won his third state title beating his Rapid City Central opponent 11-6 at the 138-pound weight class, a feat that capped a new state record of 146 consecutive victories and his third straight undefeated season; Hazen Bye won his second state title in undefeated fashion by beating his Brookings opponent 8-6 in the 145-pound championship match; Kyle Seibel suffered his only state tournament loss in overtime of the 155-pound title match to finish second; and Tom French and Mike Musser earned fourth place honors, and Mike French and Thad Manning also contributed to Vermillion's team score; and,

WHEREAS, Coach Willie Seibel was honored as wrestling coach of the year by the South Dakota High School Coaches Association for maintaining Vermillion's reputation as a Class A wrestling power in South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, Coach Willie Seibel, Tanager wrestlers, cheerleaders, fans and the community of Vermillion contributed heavily to the Tanagers' climb to the top of South Dakota high school wrestling;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 2-6, 1983, as

COACH WILLIE SEIBEL AND TANAGER WRESTLERS DAYS

In South Dakota, and join with Vermillion High School in celebrating the Tanagers' achievements and the 1983 state wrestling championship.

ATTEST:

Alice Kunkert, SECRETARY OF STATE
